

~~SEA FURY~~

FIREFLIES

Blow up 32m

navy
NO Pa 83

12

MACCHI MB 326

This is a jet trainer. It is a twin-seated aircraft used for pilot training. Its simple design and docile flight characteristics make it ideal. It is also easy to maintain and economical to operate.

ENGINE: ROLLS ROYCE VIPER MK22-11 turbo jet

THRUST: 2500lbs at sea level

MAS SPEED: 360kts at sea level

ARMAMENT/ORDNANCE: Mini Gun Pods, Rockets and Bombs

FERRY RANGE: 550 nautical miles

CANA'89/014/01

22 FEB 89

Royal Australian Navy Sea Hawk Helicopter. Note markings on the tail plane.

ROYAL AUSTRALIAN NAVY

NEG No.

24610

PUBLIC RELATIONS CANBERRA

PHOTOGRAPHIC SECTION

16 JUN 1971

R.A.N.A.S. NOWRA

Mam

RT

It's hard 18/7

place two

Scout

Name
Pai 21m

Scout

78/9

Vampire
Navy Dr 98
32m

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE

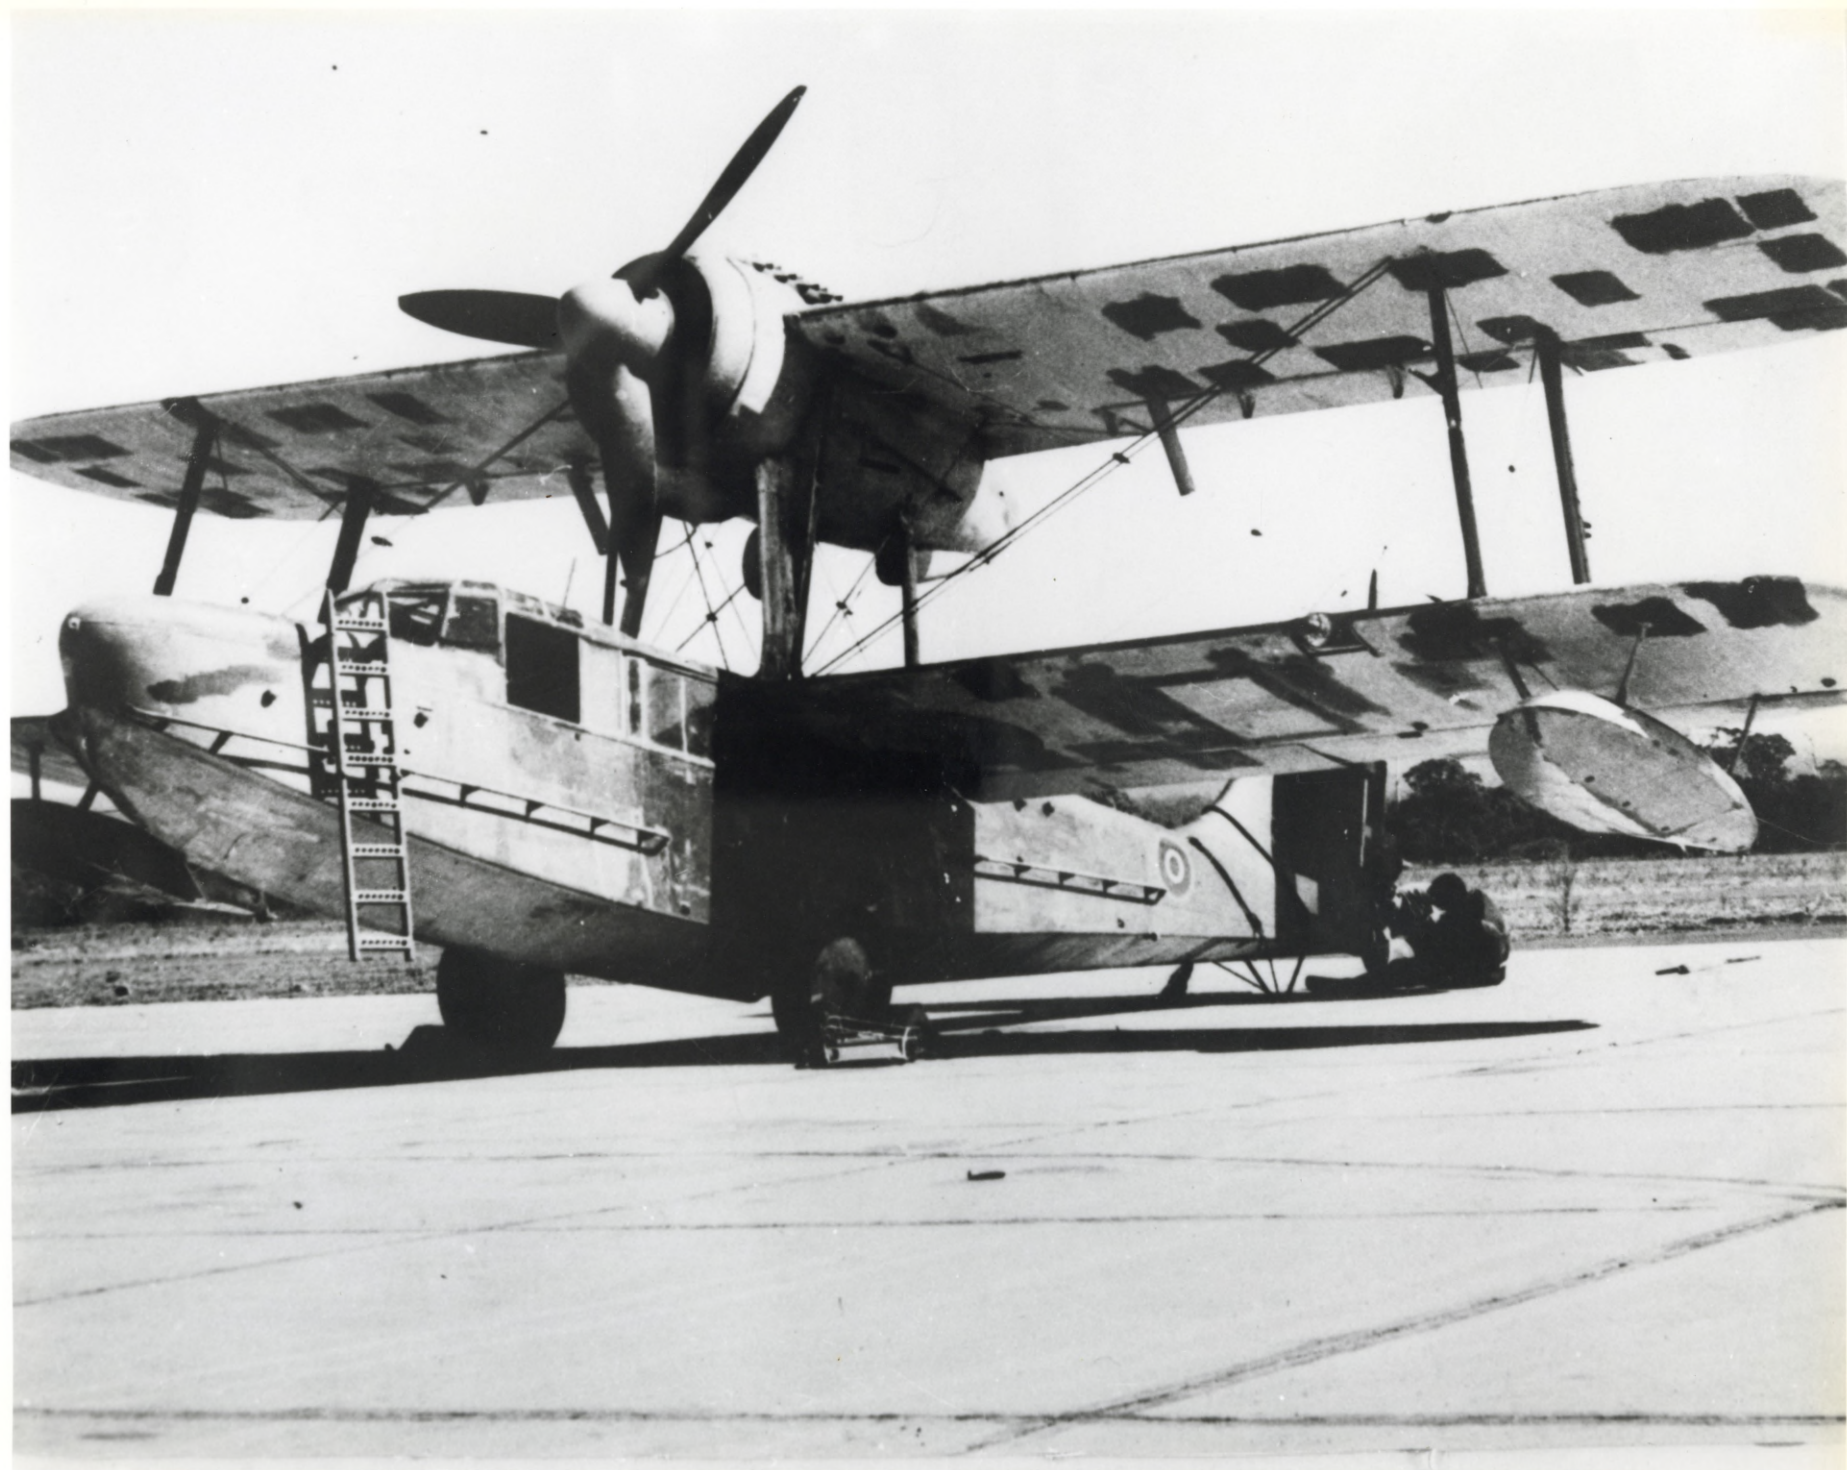

Ref. No. CANN' 79 /045/02

Public Relations Canberra

TRACKER FLY PAST OVER
Russell OFFICES

W. W. W.

RAN 'CHOPPER

Charters

AUS 172

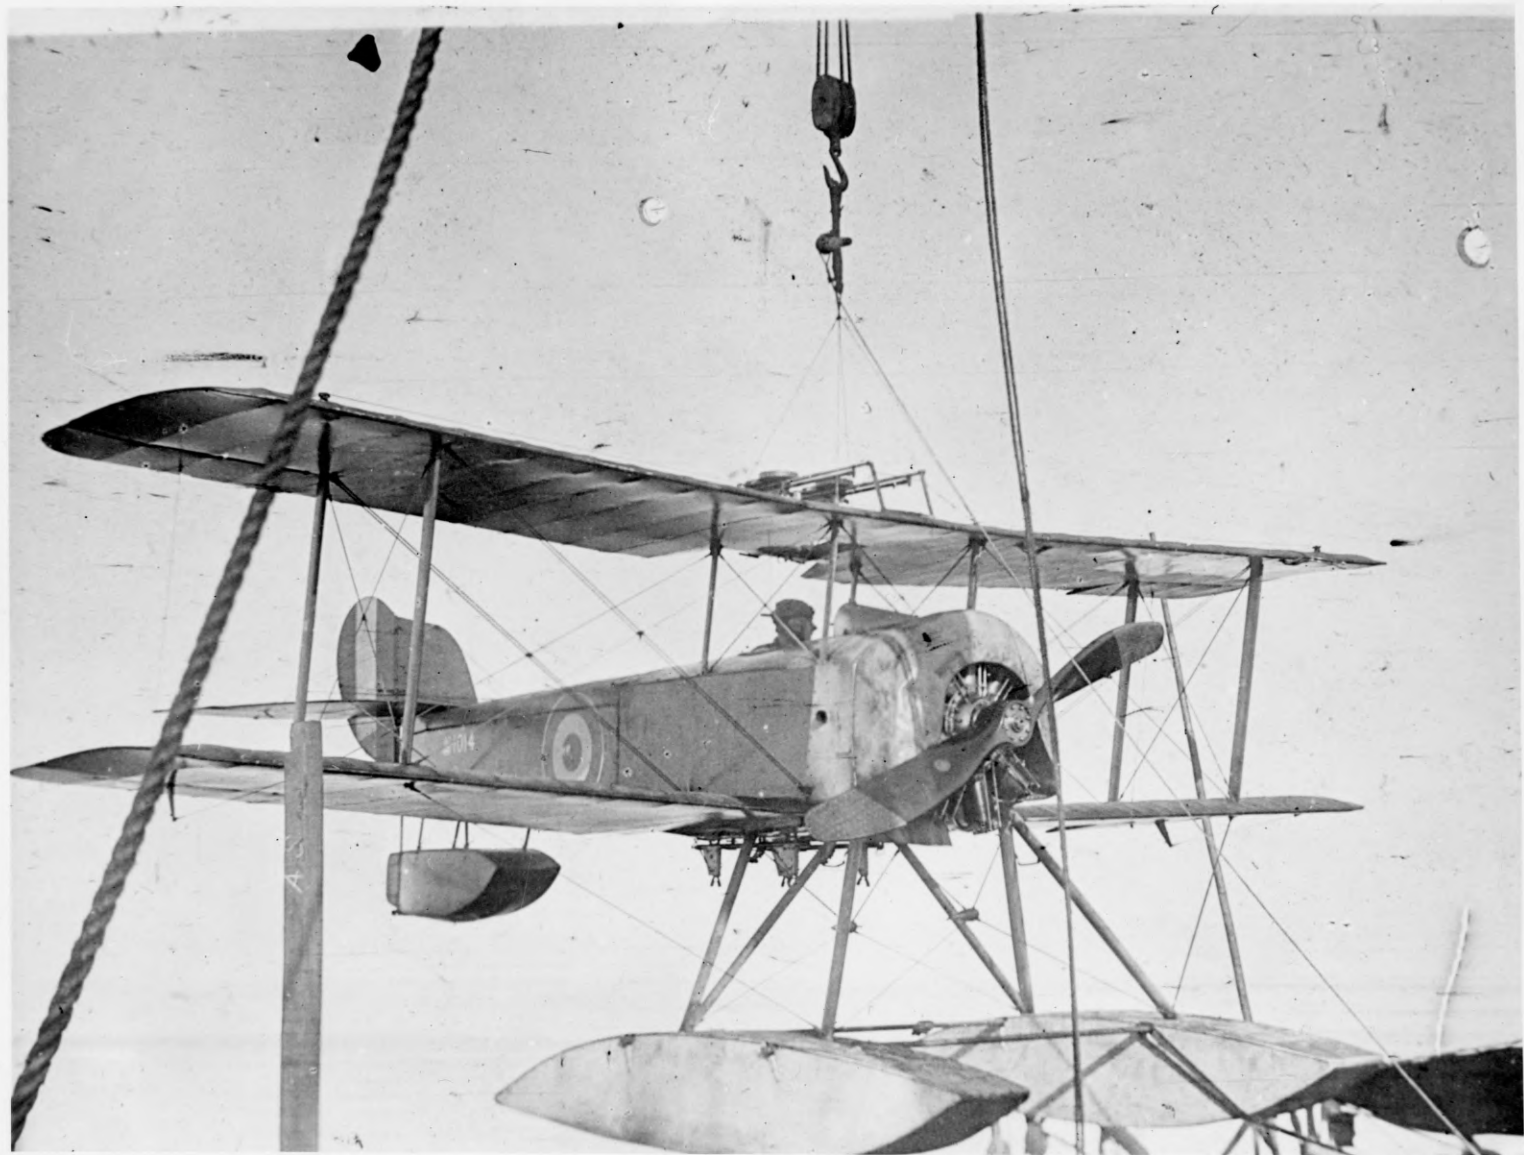

Navy
pic

21m

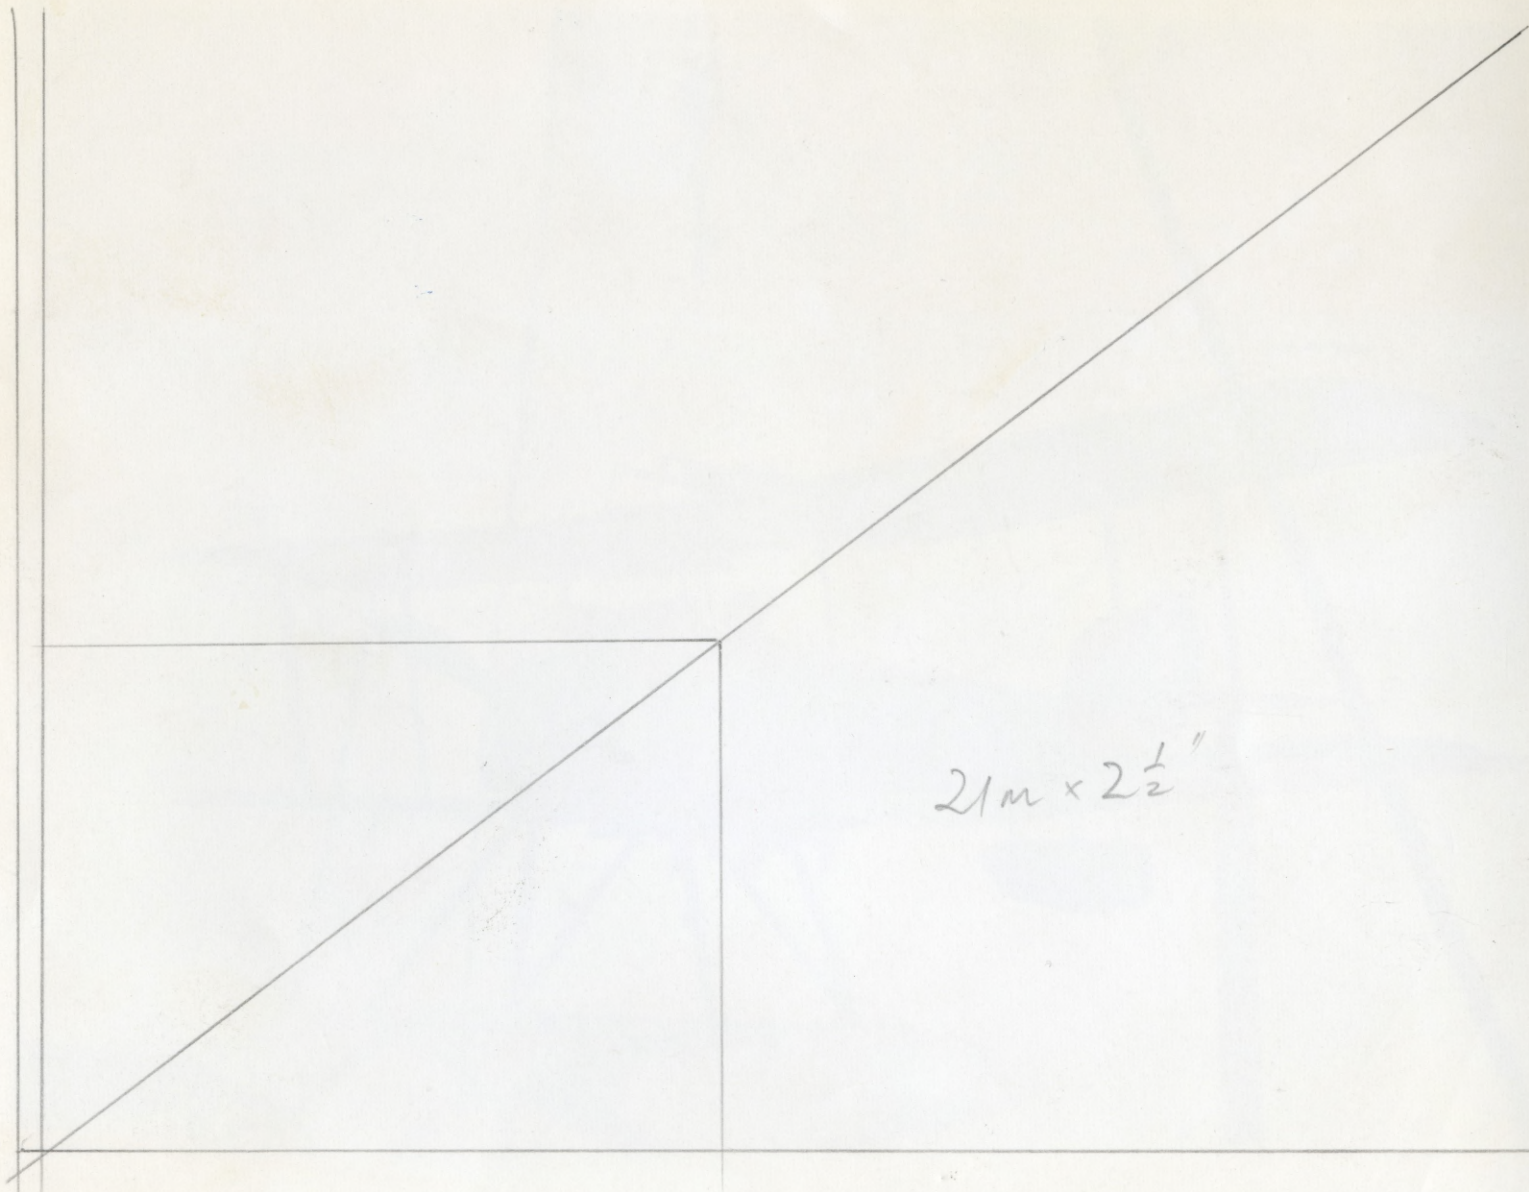

Auster

PHOTOGRAPHIC SECTION
18 FEB 1966
R.A.N.A.S. NOWRA

P-113-1 SUP WITH SEAPLANE.

AIRCRAFT - SEA FURY		Place taken N.K.	Date taken N.K.	No. COPY 191
ON SEA FURY
Taken by N.K.		Step Filed NPRS (copy)	Copyright (if any)
HISTORY of use

REPRODUCTION NOT PERMITTED

SYDNEY WITH SEA FURIES

underwood

(caption)

caption

A Royal Australian Navy Sikorsky S-70B-2 Seahawk crosses the bow of one of the Service's guided missile frigates (FFGs) during deck trials in Jervis Bay near Naval Air Station Nowra, south of Sydney. Australia has a total of 16 of the state-of-the-art ASW helicopters.

