Dear Mother Love

from Loving

Sister Oge

Wishing you many happy
reunions of the East

Sister: - Has Nurse taken your temperature?

Tommy: - I should'n't be surprised,
I've missed things before.

A. Toast.

Health to you, Wealth to you,
And all that life can give to you,
May fortune still be kind to you,
Happiness be true to you,
Life be long and good to you,
Is the toast of all your friends to you.

A Thought for Today.

It's easy enough to be pleasant,
When life flows on like a song.
But the man worth while,
Is the man who can smile,
When everything goes dead wrong.
Kind regards & thanks to the owner.

The Sportsman's Toast.

Here's the New Year to you!

Sportsmen who've ridden Life straight;

Here's all good cheer to you!

Luck to you early and late.

Here's to the best of you!

You with the blood and the nerve.

Here's to the rest of you!

What of a weak moments' swerve?

Face the grim "gate" again:

Ride hard and straight again:

Life is to dare and deserve!

And if the Wine you drink, the lip you press,
End in what All begins and ends in — Yes;
Think then you ^{Today} are what yesterday you were,
Tomorrow you shall not be less.

So when the Angel of the darker Drink
At last shall find you by the river-bank,
And, offering his Cup, invite your Soul
Forth to your lips to quaff — you shall not shrink.

"What the Dickens is this."

"Martin Chuzzlewit" holding "Little Dorrit" by the hand met "Barnaby Rudge" who said he had seen from the "Old Curiosity Shop" "Dombey & Son" enter "Bleak House".

Thither they repaired and when they entered, they found "David Copperfield" amusing "Oliver Twist" with "Sketches by Boz".

Suddenly amidst "Great Expectations" "Our Mutual Friend" the "Uncommercial Traveller" entered who at the request of "Nicholas Nickleby" entertained "Edwin Drood" with a few "Christmas Stories" & likewise told him "A Tale of two Cities" in "Hard Times" using many "Household Words".

Art thou weary Art thou languid

Mucky wait + murmur not

Fight the good fight

Here we suffer grief + pain

Come ye thankful people come

Tell me the old old story

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

What means this eager anxious throng.

He took her fancy when they met
And then he took a kiss
And then he took some more, you bet, from such a charming miss
And then he took to calling late
And took to mashing cook
And then he took the silver plate
And then he took his hook.

Every one that flatters thee
Is no friend in misery
Words are easy like the wind
Faithfull friends are hard to find
Every one will be thy friend
While thou has where-with to spend
But if store of crowns be scant
No one will supply thy want

Father I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me
And the changes that are sure to come
I do not fear to see
But I ask Thee for a present mind
Intent on pleasing Thee
