

[page i]

Dear Mr [abbr: Mister] Whitfield

I presume this visit of Sir [unclear: Jas [abbr: James]] Clark, herein announced, to me
is in some sense official.
As he is [del: is] never in the habit of announcing himself to me so
formally.

Could you therefore give me the inform-tion he desires (in the rough) especially

[page ii]

about the Out-Patients
— & tell me also
what information
you would be pleased to give (of the kind he desires) at longer
notice[unclear: -] in the smooth.

It is for the Prince.

[unclear: Yours] very sincerely
F.Nightingale
March 25/59

[page iii]

I would send for
your answer tomorrow,
before 2 o'clock, if more convenient to you [unclear: -]