REPORT

1877

Copy of Report for the year ending March 31st 1877. Date May 24th 1877:

Boys' School. This School is on the whole in a creditable condition. Reading is fair except in the first and third standards. Handwriting and Spelling are good, but Arithmetic is weak throughout. The extra subjects have been mastered with fair intelligence except the Grammar in the upper standards. Order and discipline are good and the singing is pleasing."
