

NEWS Port Macquarie News

The Port Macquarie News was founded by Alfred Edward Pountney in 1882. Between 1893 and 1907, it was owned and edited by the Rev. Robert Davidson. In 1907 it came back into the ownership of the Pountney family and from the end of the First World War was managed by Bertram Hastings Pountney (with his brother Rupert Keith Pountney until 1931). In 1945, the paper was sold to Charles Thomas Uptin who retained ownership until 1982 (with the assistance of sons Keith and Alan).

The collection of photographic negatives include Uptin family photographs as well as photographs taken for the newspaper.

NEWS/12 Unlabelled envelopes and sheets of photographic negatives, and loose strips of film (35mm)

This series comprises a number of envelopes and sheets that were unlabelled and undated, together with a number of loose film strips, at the time they came into the Society's custody.

They have been placed into polypropylene sleeves for permanent storage, and have been catalogued at a basic level, so that each strip of film has a catalogue number.

They have all been digitised with the images for each main catalogue entry (sheet, envelope, or film) being assigned a sequential number.

As at 31 December 2025, further analysis of surviving film numbers and the subjects of the photographs needs to be undertaken to provide more detailed descriptions and dates.
