

Henry, Louisa, Fanny, and Ada Ware of Ormiston

Query from Erin Ware, Teacher, Ormiston College

Information Provided by Erin

Henry Ware, Louisa Ware and their daughters Fanny & Ada. I believe he used to work at Ormiston House. He is buried in Cleveland cemetery. Henry died in July 1898 and lived at some stage on what is now Gordon Street.

P. 74 Church of England

Among the stories related by Mr. Daveson and his brother, Jack, who took up residence in Cleveland in 1898, is that of their attendance at school, having to walk from Capalaba to Ormiston, the only house on the way being "The Pines" (now the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cotton) while the only house visible from the school was the home of the Ware family.

Other names remembered with respect and honour by the church are Captain A. B. Winship and Mr. A. T. Winship (Jr.), Messrs. A. and W. Winship, the Phelans, the Sherrins, the Clarkes, the Walters, the Wares, the Voelkers, the Robins, the Crosses, the Colburns (Victoria Point), Connelllys, Sneyds, Edens, Websters, Berllins, Closes, Viertels, Ramsays, Alfred Langdon, James Welsh, Edward McLeod, the Woosleys, Taylors, Harleys, Rowneys, Willards of Capalaba; Burnetts of Wellington Point; Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Tascon, the Chataways, the Peels, the Whites, the Hougenins and James King.

P. 85 Among our oldest residents

Associated with the early times was the Ware family. Two of the daughters, Misses Fanny (91) and Ada Ware (87) survive, and though not resident in the Redlands, supply interesting information of the pioneers. They recall the early settlement at Ormiston, the Hopes, the Kanaka days, the working of the first sugar plantation and mill (Mr. Ware having planted the first cane (1863) for Captain Hope) while he, too, planted those magnificent exotic trees still thriving round Ormiston House.

p. 21: "Next to the school lived Mr & Mrs Ware and their three daughters, the two youngest still reside in Brisbane at the age of 91 and 87."

It is interesting to note that also on the Cambodia were John and Elizabeth Sherrin and their four children who were the first European settlers in 1860 in the Raby Bay area, now central Cleveland. The Sherrin family history book, "The Sherrin Family, Somerset to Cleveland", compiled by Keith Treschman, October 2000, includes a chapter on the voyage to Australia. Elizabeth Sherrin acted as teacher, Sunday School teacher, nurse and midwife to the early settlers. This book is held by the Redland Museum library and the Cleveland Library.

Further information gleaned from English and Australian newspapers:

The following ships have been chartered by the Immigration Commissioners to embark Government emigrants from Plymouth:-The Mangerton, March 31, and the Gloriana, April 4, for Sydney ; the Cambodia, April 13, for Moreton Bay ;

The Cambodia was cleared with cargo at the Custom-House, London on 3rd April 1855, sailed from Gravesend 4th April, arrived Plymouth 12th April, and departed Plymouth 20th April. Emigrants probably boarded in Plymouth. On 23rd April, the Cambodia was seen at lat 44.28 N long 15.10 W, in the North Atlantic Ocean about 500 km off the northwest coast of Spain. On 28th May, the ship was at lat 10.1 S long 32.10 W, in the South Atlantic Ocean about 360 km southeast of Recife, Brazil.

Before Ormiston State School (known then as Cleveland no. 2 School) opened in 1872, the girls attended Cleveland Primary School.

Ormiston school registers do not appear to have been deposited with the Archives. Perhaps the school still has the originals.

ARRIVAL.

July 30. Cambodia, ship, 914 tons, Paigo, from Plymouth, 21st April. Passengers—Dr. Beale, Surgeon-Superintendent, and 326 Government immigrants. Agents, Messrs. J. & G. Harris.

IMPORTS.

Cambodia: 39 pkgs, E. Buff & Co.; 202 pkgs, G. Thorn; 1578 pkgs, J. & G. Harris; 25 do, R. J. Coley; 11 do, Hope & Ramsey; do, R. Gilt; 219 do, Rundell, Bridge & Richard.

Only two deaths occurred on board of the Cambodia during the passage. The immigrants are all healthy, and it is expected, will be brought up to Brisbane on Monday. The steamer Bremer goes down for the first draft at 5 o'clock this morning. It will be seen that the Immigration Agent has adopted the proper course of publishing an official statement respecting the passengers.

THE CAMBODIA'S IMMIGRANTS.—The whole of the Cambodia's immigrants, together with their luggage, were landed in Brisbane at the close of last week. They are a healthy and cleanly body of people, and their appearance reflects credit upon those who have had charge of them. The hiring has gone on with tolerable briskness, and there remained in the depot yesterday, out of the whole number landed, 130 married people (65 couples), 7 single men, and 15 single women, besides children. The Surgeon-Superintendent of the ship, Dr. Beale, is a gentleman who visited Brisbane

The new river steam boat Bremer, after several experimental trips, has now got her engines into good working order, and on the occasion of bringing up the immigrants, performed 25 miles in two hours and a half. She is now employed in bringing up cargo from the Cambodia.

The Emigration Barrack is a spacious and commodious building with a large yard in front, at present a scene of a little excitement, the male immigrants by the Cambodia being collected in groups, or bargaining for engagements with settlers from the bush.

SUPREME COURT.

CRIMINAL SITTINGS.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22.

BEFORE his Honor Chief Justice Cockle,
ATTEMPT TO COMMIT A CAPITAL OFFENCE.

John Clarke was charged with having on the 10th February endeavored to commit a rape on the person of Fredericka Kliever.

Fredericka Kliever, called by the ATTORNEY-GENERAL, recognised the prisoner; she saw him about ten days ago at Cleveland at the point; she saw him in a cart, and got into it with him; after he committed the offence she jumped off the cart; she then saw Mr Ware; he was in sight of the cart when she jumped out; she made a complaint to him when she saw him.

Henry Ware corroborated the testimony of the principal witness; Fredericka Kliever on jumping out of the cart came up to witness, and complained to him that the boy in the cart had been beating her.

His Honor charged the jury.

The jury returned a verdict acquitting the prisoner of the graver crime, but finding him guilty of an assault. He was strongly recommended to mercy.

The prisoner was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

CLEVELAND DIVISIONAL BOARD.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Cleveland Divisional Board was held on Friday last. The members present were Messrs. W. Ross (chairman), J. Cross, J. Fogarty, P. Horisk, W. Kefford, and J. Woodgate. The object of the meeting was to consider a letter received from Messrs. Bunton and Little, solicitors for D. Denholm, contractor for the divisional hall, stating that he had finished the hall in accordance with plans and specifications, and demanding payment of £71 5s., balance due to the contractor.

The CHAIRMAN mentioned that he had seen Mr. Denholm recently, and that with reference to the portions of work condemned by the Improvement Committee Mr. Denholm had said he preferred that the board should deduct something from his account rather than come to Cleveland to make the required alterations.

It was resolved, on the motion of Mr. Kefford, that £65 2s. be paid to the contractor in final settlement of his account.

The following tenders were then opened:- For forming and graveling 5½ chains of road on the main Brisbane and Cleveland road, near Little Sandy Bridge: Henry Ware, £11, time one month; Christie Völker, £7 15s.; Wm. Helmholz, £6 17s. 6d., one month. For erecting a guard fence at the junction of the Cleveland and Wellington Point roads: John Woods, 7s. per rod, culverts £3 (212 2s.); Wm. Helmholz, £7 18s.; Christie Völker, £9 15s. It was resolved that the tender of Wm. Helmholz be accepted in both cases.

Mr. WOODGATE inquired of the chairman whether the board had a right to stop people from taking timber from the reserves and roads, and said that the timber might be wanted in the future by the board for the purpose of making culverts, &c.

The CHAIRMAN read a by-law on the subject, which prohibited people from removing gravel, sand, or timber without the permission of the board.

The meeting then terminated.

Some few weeks ago there passed away at Cleveland one whose long career in Queensland had been marked by some interesting events. The late Mr. Henry Ware arrived in the colony with his wife in August, 1855, under the engagement to the Hon. Louis Hope. He was first employed on Kilcoy station, and afterwards at Ormiston, where he laid out the grounds around the house, and where also he is said to have been the first man to plant sugarcane in Queensland. Some years later he took up land at Cleveland West, where he resided until his death, last month.

CHURCH JUBILEE

Celebrations at Cleveland

The Jubilee celebrations at Cleveland in connection with St. Paul's Church of England, which commenced last Sunday, were marked on Saturday afternoon by a united social event in which the parishioners of St. Andrew's (Ormiston), St. George's (Birkdale), and St. James's (Wellington Point) identified themselves with the ladies' guilds of Cleveland and Victoria Point.

In opening the function, Canon W. H. Stevenson, principal of St. Francis's College, Nundah, who was introduced by the vicar of the parish (the Rev. T. Hely Wilson), said that a church history covering 60 years was quite a long time, so far as Queensland was concerned. He added that it was gratifying to find a field of unity existing in the parish.

At the instance of the chairman of the Cleveland Shire Council (Councillor G. J. Waller) a vote of thanks was accorded to Canon Stevenson. A bouquet was presented to Mrs. Stevenson by Little Olgie Waller, and members of the G.F.S. presented a box of sweets.

Owing to the inclement weather the garden party arrangements were transferred to the parish hall. The Cleveland Ladies' Guild, of which Mrs. T. Hely Wilson is president and Mrs. E. H. Harley secretary, were responsible for the general arrangements. Mrs. W. Ramsay and Miss J. Robins supervised the guild's work stall. St. Andrew's Ladies' Guild members supervising a work stall were Madames E. Clark (president), Misses E. Herbertson (secretary), R. and J. McDonald, and O. Glosier. The ladies of St. George's Guild arranged a "Buy your dinner" stall. The president (Mrs. T. J. Brown) was assisted by the secretary and treasurer (Mrs. Marshall and Miss Willard), Madames H. V. Peasley, E. Genn, J. H. Petty, and Miss Ruth Steedman.

St. James's Guild ladies who organised a winter fumble stall, were as follows: Madames G. K. Boddington, E. Close, R. Spink, M. Bloomer, E. M. Cleugh, L. M. Martin (secretary), and W. Easton. Roses in profusion decorated the Victoria Point ladies' stall, and Mrs. J. Luker (president) was assisted by Madames R. C. Wilson (secretary), H. W. Barnes, E. F. Colburn, D. W. Colburn, and C. Barnes. The St. Paul's G.F.S. work stall was assisted by Mrs. H. Webster and members. Madames H. Bolton, A. Hall, and T. Mitchell arranged the afternoon tea.

Past and present parishioners who were associated with the church's early history were well represented in the gathering, and many reminiscences were exchanged. Councillor G. J. Waller, chairman of the Cleveland Shire Council, and Mrs. Waller, Madames F. Hancigan (East Brisbane), G. G. C. Hanlon (Raby Bay), W. C. Bram (Wellington Point), Ainsworth (Dutton Park), A. Murray (Auchenflower), Misses J. Robins (Cleveland), Willard (Birkdale), Ada and Fanny Ware (Coorparoo), Messrs. Robert White (Mornington), W. Robins (Albion), and E. Ware (West End) were amongst those whose memories went back on Saturday afternoon to the early church anniversaries, upwards of 60 years ago.

ANCIENT SCHOOL

REPLACED BY NEW

Minister at Ormiston

On one of the most beautiful sites around Moreton Bay stands the new State school at Ormiston, from the verandas of which can be seen a picturesque view of Cleveland and Stradbroke Island, and the surrounding bay.

"In such surroundings as this," said Mr. Joe Francis, M.H.R. on Saturday afternoon (when Mr. W. Cooper, M.L.A., Minister of Education, officially opened the building), "boys and girls of the school should find inspiration to become brilliant scholars."

Mr. G. J. Waller, chairman of Cleveland Shire Council, and Mr. A. Hoffman, head master, met Mr. Cooper on arrival and escorted him through the guard of honour of children to the school.

In introducing Mr. Cooper, Mr. Waller said that he (Mr. Waller) had attended the first school at Ormiston over 60 years ago. He urged the boys and girls to look forward to the time when they could, with pride, say they had attended the Ormiston school.

Mr. Cooper, in performing the opening ceremony, said that the new building at Ormiston had been granted because it was felt that Ormiston as a district was going ahead, and that the old school building was not suitable. A teacher said Mr. Cooper had the best opportunity of bringing forward the best in a child in good surroundings. No money is ever wasted when it is being spent for the betterment of education.

In the future Mr. Cooper said it was hoped that secondary education would be increased where boys and girls could fit themselves for the time when there would be brighter and better opportunities in the industrial world.

A vote of thanks was accorded the speakers, on the motion of the chairman of the school committee, Mr. F. Clark.

The new school building is in the grounds of the old school which was built in 1872. It was first opened on April 17 1872, with Mr. Geo. Cole as head master, with an enrolment of 34. It ranked as one of the first schools in Queensland, being No. 2 on the list.

Among those present during the afternoon were two of the original scholars, Misses Ada and Fanny Ware, who now reside at Coorparoo. These ladies remember the timber for the original school being sawn at a mill at the back of the school grounds.

The new building is a six-room structure with wide front and back verandas. The school committee entertained the visitors at afternoon tea at tables spread underneath the spreading tree which graces the school grounds. At the official table were

NEW SCHOOL AT ORMISTON Progressive District's Need

The new State school at Ormiston was opened on Saturday afternoon by the Minister for Education (Mr. Cooper), who was introduced by Mr. G. J. Watter (chairman of the Cleveland Shire Council, and a pupil at the first school at Ormiston more than 60 years ago).

Mr. Cooper said that the new building at Ormiston had been granted because it was felt that Ormiston as a district was going ahead, and that the old school building was not suitable. A teacher, said Mr. Cooper, had the best opportunity of bringing forward the best in a child in good surroundings. No money is ever wasted when it is being spent for the betterment of education.

Further searching on Ancestry.com.au reveals that Henry Ware and Louisa Gristwood married on 2 April 1855, not long before emigrating, at the Parish Church of St Mary, Harmondsworth, Middlesex. Henry was a labourer and Louisa a servant, and both were residing in Harmondsworth. Henry was baptised at Chalfont Saint Giles, Buckinghamshire, on 15 August 1824, his parents being George and Frances (nee Bowler). Louisa was born 28 September 1828 and baptised 26 October 1828 at St Mary the Virgin, Parish Church, Harefield, Middlesex, being the daughter of Thomas and Hannah (nee Pag(g)et).
